Exhibition about the Village in the war

On the 10th and 11th November we look forward to welcoming people to church to see the exhibition about the village in the war and make or hang a poppy by the names of those who died.

Elizabeth would really like some volunteers to serve tea and cake and/or make cake. Phone 01202 625296

Christian Aid's Harvest Appeal

Christian Aid's Harvest Appeal is for their work in Malawi, Ethiopia, Burkina Faso and Honduras. The good thing about this appeal is that for every £1 donated, will be matched funded by the European Union meaning every £1 given will be worth £5.

Go to <https://www.christianaid.org.uk/harvest-appeal>

or ask Sheila Newnham

Service to remember the faithful departed

Our 'All Souls' Service will take place on 4th November at 3pm. This will be a time to remember loved ones within the context of a short service and a chance to light a candle in their memory. If you want the name of a particular person to be read out at the service please contact

Pam Baker pam-b@hotmail.co.uk

Stephen

Praise and Prayer

On 4th November at 6pm the Benefice Praise and Prayer is coming to St Mary's. We have a time of extended praise, then a short talk and a time to pray. The focus this month will be the persecuted church around the world. Please see Stephen if you are willing and able to serve tea/coffee as part of the welcome at the beginning of this service.
